Klaber received his private pilot license in the summer of 2001 at Butler Air at the Butler County Airport (BTP) located north of his home town, Pittsburgh, Penn. He earned his Bachelor of Science in Meteorology from Penn State University. In addition to his bachelor's, Klaber continued his flight training and earned with an associate degree in applied science from Beaver County Community College at BTP.

In the fall of 2006, Klaber moved to St. Louis in order to be a flight instructor at Saint Louis University's Parks College. In 2008, he began instructing for Langa Air located in Alton, Ill. and Spirit of St. Louis Airport. Klaber joined Aero Charter in 2009 as a first officer contract pilot on a MTS King Air.

"We are excited to have Chris as a permanent part of our team. His extensive knowledge and experience will be a great addition to our already successful team," said John Morgenthaler, President of Aero Charter.

Locally owned and operated since 1978, Aero Charter is based at the Spirit of St. Louis Airport in Chesterfield, Mo. (KSUS) and provides complete aircraft support services for business and private aircraft. The company offers worldwide flights with the majority of its clients flying throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean and South America. The fleet includes jet, turbine and piston aircraft. In addition to charter, Aero Charter provides full aircraft support services including aircraft management, maintenance, avionics, and Fixed Base Operation (FBO) ground support. Aero Charter's avionics department specializes in custom installations and repairs. In 1995, Aero Charter introduced Aero Travel, a full-service travel agency. The recipient of numerous safety awards, Aero Charter recently expanded its facilities to include an additional hangar and expansive ramp area, which more than doubles its existing capacity.
