AERO CHARTER ANNOUNCES NEW MANAGER OF AVIONICS

Aero Charter promotes Ted Clark to Manager of Avionics

(ST. LOUIS/May 20, 2013) Aero Charter, the charter, FBO and aircraft support company based at the Spirit of St. Louis Airport, Chesterfield, Mo. (KSUS), has promoted Ted Clark to Manager of Avionics.

Clark, a native of St. Louis, received his Associate's Degree in Electronic Engineering from St. Charles Community College. He also has his A&P License that certifies him to inspect, perform and supervise maintenance of aircraft and aircraft systems. Additionally, he is NCATT AET certified and a member of the Aircraft Electronics Association.

Clark has 17 years of experience in avionics, including seven years at TWA/American Airlines as an avionics technician. During his time at TWA, he gained hands on experience while working the flight line. He entered general aviation in 2003 and has been with Aero Charter for the past eight years, where his previous title was avionics technician.

“Our goal at Aero Charter is to offer our customers the highest quality products, installed to the highest standards,” said John Morgenthaler, president. “Ted’s skills, avionics experience and attention to detail assures we will achieve our goals and provide the best customer service possible. Look for great things from Ted.”

About Aero Charter

Locally owned and operated since 1978, Aero Charter is based at the Spirit of St. Louis Airport in Chesterfield, Mo. (KSUS) and provides complete aircraft support services for business and private aircraft. The company offers worldwide flights with the majority of its clients flying throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean and South America. The fleet includes jet, turbine and piston aircraft. In addition to charter, Aero Charter provides full aircraft support services including aircraft management, maintenance, avionics, and Fixed Base Operation (FBO) ground support. Aero Charter’s avionics department specializes in custom installations and repairs. In 1995, Aero Charter introduced Aero Travel, a full-service travel agency. The recipient of numerous safety awards, Aero Charter recently expanded its facilities to include an additional hangar and expansive ramp area, which more than doubles its existing capacity.
