AERO CHARTER NAMES NEW DIRECTOR OF TRAINING AND ASSISTANT CHIEF PILOT

Brandon Marshall steps into his new roles after four years with the company

(ST. LOUIS/July, 2012) Aero Charter, the charter, FBO and aircraft support company based at the Spirit of St. Louis Airport, Chesterfield, Mo. (KSUS), promoted Brandon Marshall to Director of Training and Assistant Chief Pilot. Marshall has been with Aero Charter for four years, and most recently held the position of Safety Program Director.

Marshall joined Aero Charter in 2008, and has since served various roles within the company. He is Captain in King Air, Navajo and Baron aircrafts. Marshall also worked within the charter division, and was responsible for marketing, scheduling and dispatch. He is a six year veteran in the industry, prior to joining Aero Charter. Before joining Aero Charter, Marshall worked as a flight instructor, teaching primary and instrument students at Central Missouri Aviation.

“Brandon’s range of qualifications, professionalism and experience add depth to the quality of service our company offers. His talent for safety, flight and training directly passes through to our clients,” said John Morgenthaler Jr., president of Aero Charter. “We are excited to welcome Brandon into his new role, and we look forward to his continued growth with Aero Charter.”

Marshall earned a Bachelor of Health Science in Nuclear Medicine Technology from the University of Missouri-Columbia, and currently teaches two online courses for the program. He completed his flight training at Central Missouri Aviation in Columbia, Mo and Langa Air in Alton, Ill.

AERO CHARTER – PROMOTION / PAGE 2 OF2

Locally owned and operated since 1978, Aero Charter is based at the Spirit of St. Louis Airport in Chesterfield, Mo. (KSUS) and provides complete aircraft support services for business and private aircraft. The company offers worldwide flights with the majority of its clients flying throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean and South America. The fleet includes jet, turbine and piston aircraft. In addition to charter, Aero Charter provides full aircraft support services including aircraft management, maintenance, avionics, and Fixed Base Operation (FBO) ground support. Aero Charter's avionics department specializes in custom installations and repairs. In 1995, Aero Charter introduced Aero Travel, a full-service travel agency. The recipient of numerous safety awards, Aero Charter recently expanded its facilities to include an additional hangar and expansive ramp area, which more than doubles its existing capacity.
